

MINNESOTA
LEGISLATURE

A house resolution

recognizing City of Brooklyn Center Centennial Day

WHEREAS, the City of Brooklyn Center represents the heritage of the upper Midwest and its location in the northwestern part of Hennepin County, Minnesota; and

WHEREAS, Brooklyn Center was incorporated as a village in 1911 and became a city in a referendum vote by the citizens of Brooklyn Center in 1967; and

WHEREAS, the City of Brooklyn Center has been recognized as a 1986 All-American City and designated as an official 2000 Millennium Community; and

WHEREAS, the community has emphasized growth, family values, and industry and balanced small town character while promoting economic prosperity and growth; and

WHEREAS, a northern gateway to the Twin Cities, Brooklyn Center affords residents and visitors opportunities to live, shop, and work in a safe and growing community; and

WHEREAS, Brooklyn Center has embraced a community of residents who are as diverse as the world and as committed to making their community successful and representative of the world we live in; and

WHEREAS, A Great Place to Start A Great Place to Stay is truly a befitting description of the City of Brooklyn Center as it celebrates its centennial throughout 2011; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration of the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it that it recognizes February 5, 2011, as City of Brooklyn Center Centennial Day in recognition of the 100th birthday of Brooklyn Center, Minnesota, and urges all citizens to join in this special observance.

Dated: January 13, 2011

Kurt Zellers, Speaker
Minnesota House of Representatives

Linda Scheid
State Senator

Matt Dean, Chair
Rules and Legislative Administration

Debra Hilstrom
State Representative

