

CRIME ALERT

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE BROOKLYN CENTER POLICE DEPARTMENT

September 28, 2017

TYPE OF CRIME: Residential Burglaries

In order to alert the public to crime that has occurred in their area, the Brooklyn Center Police Department is issuing the following crime alert that may affect you. Please read this alert carefully and follow the advice that is given. Please share this information with Brooklyn Center residents that you feel may be affected by this crime. All questions should be directed to the Brooklyn Center Police Department at (763) 503-3243.

WHAT: Daytime burglaries of unoccupied residential homes.

WHEN: Primarily occurring Monday through Friday between Noon and 5 p.m.

WHERE: Burglaries are occurring in southwestern Brooklyn Center from 57th Ave N to 63rd Ave N between Brooklyn Blvd and Unity Ave.

The Brooklyn Center Police Department is looking for possible leads or witnesses and are offering a $500 REWARD to anyone who provides information leading to an arrest and conviction.

This is an effort to make the area and entire city safer for all who live, work and visit.

Concerned citizens who provide information can choose to remain confidential, which means that they will not be identified in police reports, Search Warrant Applications, or other documents and they will not have to appear or testify in court. It is important to provide a way for officers to contact you directly – if you request it, your personal information will remain confidential.

CRIME TIPS – SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

- ⇒ Solicitors knocking on your door that seem suspicious (ie: asking to assist with yard work, yet possess no tools).
- ⇒ If you witness suspicious activity – please observe: height, hair and eye color, any distinguishing marks/scars, tattoos, vehicle description and direction of travel. Write down everything immediately after an incident has occurred and contact the police.
- ⇒ Watch for youth wandering around your neighborhood during school time hours.
- ⇒ If you notice someone lurking in your area that does not belong.

PLEASE CALL
9-1-1

Money for the reward would be provided by the Brooklyn Center Crime Prevention Program.
